Community Outreach Program set for October 19

Saturday, October 19, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. a very informative program on the Affordable Care Act for non-seniors will be given by Adriana Jiminez from Vision Y Compromiso. She will provide unbiased, non-political answers to how the Act will affect individuals. Ms. Jiminez comes highly recommended and is quite knowledgeable. Tell your friends and neighbors about this opportunity to learn the facts about this controversial legislation.

Other Scheduled Community Outreach Programs

November 9, the Council on Aging Orange County will present information on choices for senior citizens; January 18, COA of Long Beach will present HOPE, a program dealing with addiction and mental illness.

Something is Missing

The pews have been taken to be reupholstered. The work is being done by Restoration Reupholstery in Laguna Hills. Look for newly recovered ones soon.

St. John's Fall Concert Today

St. John's Lutheran Church will present a Bach Cantata Vespers Concert today at 7:00 p.m. The Church is located east 185 S. Center in Orange. A free will offering will be taken.

Office Volunteers Still Needed

A person is still needed to be in the office on Thursdays. Contact Pastor Carole if you can help.

Remember our Outreach Opportunities

Please continue to save your General Mills Box Tops for the Child Care Center and Campbell's Labels for Education for the Navajo Mission in Arizona. We also contribute to Ronald McDonald House aluminum can pull tabs campaign. It takes only a little effort and has such a large impact.
